

FCC

I want to express my opinion on relaxing the standards for language and nudity on television and related media. The standards are already too loose for language and nudity as well as violence and gore. Please do not relax these any further.

Sincerely,

Rosary Bullard